

2027 Health and Elder Law Internship

Paid Internship in Seattle, WA during Summer 2027.

PROJECT EXPECTATIONS

Under the supervision of experienced attorney, the student will provide legal advice and assistance to older adults in areas of health care law, government benefits and housing stability. The student will also engage in a legal research project with our Medical-Legal Partnership team involving social determinants of health and prepare legal education materials on government health care benefits.

SPECIFICATIONS

- Enrolled in a Washington law school;
- Interest in providing legal services to older adults and conducting health law research;
- Capacity to work independently and cooperatively with different types of people; and
- Dependable computer skills in word processing and computerized legal research.

SCHOLARSHIP

$8,000 will be available for this position through the Greenfield Elder Law Scholarship funded by the WSBA Elder Law Section. Questions about the scholarship can be directed to Laura Sanford at lauras@wsba.org.

APPLICATIONS

Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled with priority given to applications received by December 31, 2026. To apply, please email your letter of interest and resume to attorneyresume@nwjustice.org

Email questions about the position to Meredith Grigg at meredith.grigg@nwjustice.org.

NJP is committed to a policy of equal opportunity and fosters an environment free of barriers and discriminatory practices. NJP actively promotes mutual respect, acceptance, teamwork and productivity. NJP is committed to maintaining an organization whose staff, Board and clients are diverse in background, experience, race, color, national origin, gender, age, religious reference, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sensory, mental or physical abilities, veteran status, and other qualities that strengthen the program while reinforcing its commitment to basic fairness. People of color, people who identify as transgender, lesbian, gay, or bisexual, and those with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Individuals needing a reasonable accommodation for the application or interview process or for more information about the project should contact Human Resources Department by calling (206) 464-1519 or emailing hr@nwjustice.org